

CHURCH OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Grow in Faith. Live in Hope. Share God's Love.

Sunday, April 10, 2022 + 10:00 a.m.

The Sunday of the Passion: Palm Sunday

The Liturgy of the Word

ACCLAMATION AND COLLECT

Celebrant: Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.

People: Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Assist us mercifully with your help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby you have given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST LESSON Zechariah 9:9-12

A Reading from the Book of Zechariah.

Rejoice greatly, O daughter Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter Jerusalem! Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. He will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off, and he shall command peace to the nations; his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit. Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope; today I declare that I will restore to you double.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE BLESSING OF THE PALMS

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right to praise you, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph and was proclaimed as King of kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way.

All raise their palm branches.

Let these branches be for us signs of his victory, and grant that we who bear them in his name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life; who lives and reigns in glory with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

People: Hosanna in the highest.

THE PROCESSION

Celebrant: Let us go forth in peace.

People: In the name of Christ. Amen.

The people enter the church in procession, waving their palm branches.

As the procession enters the nave, everyone sings:

HYMN "All glory, laud, and honor"

Music: Valet will ich dir geben, melody Mechior Teschner (1584–1635), alt.;
harm. William Henry Monk (1823–1889).

COLLECT OF THE DAY Remain standing.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in thy well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

People: Amen.

SECOND LESSON Philippians 2:5-11

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians (2:5-11).

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death – even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL Remain standing.

Gospeler: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke (19:28–40).

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it.'" So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?" They said, "The Lord needs it." Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!" Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, order your disciples to stop." He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out."

Gospeler: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Standing.

Leader: As we enter the most holy of weeks, let us pray to the Lord, saying, "All glory, laud, and honor: to thee, redeemer King."

For Christian communities near and far, that their mission of reconciliation may be strengthened as they journey with Jesus in his passion and resurrection. All glory, laud, and honor:

People: To thee, redeemer King.

Leader: For this nation and all who bear the responsibility of authority, that they may follow the example of Jesus and lead as ones who serve. All glory, laud, and honor:

People: To thee, redeemer King.

Leader: For the earth and her inhabitants, that all of creation may share in the abundance offered by Jesus at the table. All glory, laud, and honor:

People: To thee, redeemer King.

Leader: For this city of Knoxville, and especially for the people of Good Samaritan, that we may reflect the love of Jesus in our common life. We pray for those who are celebrating birthdays and anniversaries; and for.... All glory, laud, and honor:

People: To thee, redeemer King.

Leader: For those who have asked for our prayers, those for whom we know to pray, and those whose needs are known to you alone, that they may feel the healing power of Jesus' touch. We pray for

People: To thee, redeemer King.

Leader: For all those who have died, that they may rest with Jesus in Paradise. All glory, laud, and honor:

People: To thee, redeemer King.

Silence may be kept.

Celebrant: Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you." Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and forever. Amen.

PEACE Standing.

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Greet one another in the name of the Lord.

ANNOUNCEMENTS Seated.

The Holy Communion

OFFERTORY

Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God. – Ephesians 5:2

ANTHEM Sung by the Choir.

Let This Mind Be in You

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God; but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient unto death; even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him and has given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

– Words: Philippians 2:5-11
Music: Lee Hoiby (1926-2011)

FOR THE PRESENTATION

HYMN "O sacred head, sore wounded" Standing; everyone sings.

1 O sa - cred head, sore wound - ed, de - filed and put to scorn;
3 In thy most bit - ter pas - sion my heart to share doth cry,
O king - ly head sur - round - ed with mock - ing crown of thorn:
with thee for my sal - va - tion up - on the cross to die.
What sor - row mars thy gran - deur? Can death thy bloom de - flower?
Ah, keep my heart thus mov - ed to stand thy cross be - neath,
O coun - te - nance whose splen - dor the hosts of heaven a - dore!
to mourn thee, well - be - lov - ed, yet thank thee for thy death.

—Words: Paul Gerhardt (1607–1676); tr. Robert Seymour Bridges (1844–1930)
Music: Herzlich tut mich verlangen (Passion Chorale), Hans Leo Hassler (1564–1612); adapt. Johann Sebastian Bach (1685–1750)

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING (Eucharistic Prayer C) Remain standing.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant: God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

People: Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant: At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

People: By your will they were created and have their being.

Celebrant: From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

People: Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Celebrant: Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

People: By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

Celebrant: And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Everyone sings:

The image shows three staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like. The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff contains the first line of the hymn, the second staff the second line, and the third staff the third line. The music ends with a double bar line.

Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

—Setting: From New Plainsong; David Hurd (b. 1950)

The people stand or kneel.

Celebrant: And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

People: We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant: Lord God of our forbears: God of Abraham and Sarah; Isaac and Rebekah; Jacob, Rachel, and Leah; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

People: Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Celebrant: Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation.

All: AMEN.

Silence is kept, as the ministers bow in thanksgiving.

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world:
have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and homophonic, with lyrics placed below the notes. The first staff ends with a double bar line. The second and third staves are connected by a single bar line. The fourth staff ends with a double bar line.

—Setting: From New Plainsong; David Hurd (b. 1950)

INVITATION

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

—Words: American folk hymn, ca. 1835
Music: Wondrous Love, from The Southern Harmony, 1835

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER Kneeling.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

All: Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ;
and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

*At the conclusion of Communion, the people may be seated,
and the ministers are seated in the congregation.*

ANTHEM Sung by the Choir.

Ah, holy Jesus, how have you offended,
That mortal judgment has on you descended?
By foes derided, by your own rejected,
O most afflicted!

Who was the guilty? Who brought this upon you?
It is my treason, Lord, that has undone you.
'Twas I, Lord Jesus, I it was denied you;
I crucified you.

Ah, Holy Jesus

For me, kind Jesus, was your incarnation,
Your mortal sorrow, and your life's oblation,
Your death of anguish, and your bitter passion,
For my salvation.

Therefore dear Jesus, since I cannot pay you,
I do adore you, and will every pray you,
Think on your pity and your love unswerving,
Not my deserving.

Ah, holy Jesus.

—Words: Johann Heerman (1585–1647), tr. Robert Bridges (1844–1930), alt.
Music: Johann Crüger, (1598–1662), arr. Larry Shackley (b. 1956)

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

*The people may be seated for the first portion of the reading.
The customary responses before and after the Gospel are omitted.*

* * * * *

Narrator: At that festival the governor used to release a prisoner....

Pilate: Whom do you want me to release for you, Jesus Barabbas, or Jesus the Anointed One?

People: Barabbas!

Pilate: What shall I do then with the Anointed One?

People: Crucify him! Crucify him!

Pilate: Are you certain of his guilt?

Narrator: The crowd took up the chant:

People: Crucify him! Crucify him! Crucify him!

Pilate: Shall I crucify your king?

People: We have no king but Caesar!

* * * * *

Narrator: The soldiers led Jesus away within the governor's palace.... They began to mock him by kneeling before him.

People: Hail, King of the Jews!

All stand at the mention of "Golgotha, which means 'skull.'"

At the conclusion of the reading, silence is kept for a space, after which all depart quietly, without ceremony.
