GIFTING AND HONORING MOTHER ELIZABETH

As you are aware, Mother Elizabeth and her sweet family will be departing Good Samaritan in June 30 for Chattanooga where she will become an Associate Rector at St. Paul's in September. In gratitude for her time at Good Sam, we will be honoring Mother Elizabeth with a monetary gift. Please see the insert in your bulletin for more information on how to do that. We will also have a brunch reception in her honor on Sunday, June 30 between the 8:15 and 10:30am services. Please make plans to join us on that Sunday as we say goodbye and thank you to Mother Elizabeth for her time with us. She, Matt, Rohen, and Rob will be missed!

MANY THANKS TO LOTS OF FOLKS

Yesterday was the last workday for the Habitat for Humanity house that we have been building with our partners at First Presbyterian. Thanks to everyone who signed up to help with actual hands-on building, Karen Sproles for providing lunch, and Lisa Webb and Michelle Bales for delivering lunch. A special thanks to Larry Webb and Jason Bales for coordinating this project for Good Sam. Dedication of the house and turning over the keys to owner Dominique Payne and her children will be announced soon. We also want to give a BIG thanks to everyone who helped out with Family Promise this past week. It does indeed take a village to staff and organize this ministry and your willingness to help does not go unnoticed! We are very grateful!

The Cash In The Plate For Today Goes To ChainFree Knoxville.

ChainFree Knoxville was founded to address the problem of an increasing number of dogs in our community being tethered on short leads or kept in very small enclosures. These conditions can lead to extra anxiety and aggression on the part of normally docile dogs. To address these concerns, ChainFree Knoxville and their donors and volunteers strive to provide solutions by working with owners of these dogs.

Our donations help to provide resources for comfort and safety for the dogs, including such things as houses, bedding, toys, food, and larger enclosures.

Donations can be made by sending a check to Good Sam, specifying "ChainFree" in the memo line, or through Good Sam's online giving portal by scanning the QR code at right.

Last week's offering of $541.00 has been designated to go to Smokey's Pantry.

ALTAR FLOWERS & AUMBRY CANDLE

The Altar Flowers are given to the Glory of God. The Aumbry Candle is given by Elaine Cochrane in memory of William A. Cochrane.
