The Cash In The Plate For Today Goes To HonorAir Knoxville.

HonorAir Knoxville takes WWII, Korean, and Vietnam veterans from East Tennessee to Washington, D.C. to visit the memorials built to honor their sacrifice - at no charge to the veteran. No amount of gratitude could ever repay the debt for the gift of democracy veterans gave the world. HonorAir Knoxville has been in operation for 16 years and has completed 35 flights that served over 4,400 veterans. They are dedicated to honoring these East Tennessee veterans.

Donations can be made by sending a check to Good Sam, specifying "HonorAir" in the memo line, or through Good Sam's online giving portal by scanning the QR code at right.

Last week's offering of $905.00 has been designated to go to The Good Samaritan FISH Pantry.

The Altar Flowers are given to the Glory of God by Melanie Gillespie in thanksgiving for my birthday & life. The Aumbry Candle is given to the Glory of God by Melanie Gillespie in thanksgiving for The Church of the Good Samaritan.
